

INVITATION: LISTENING SESSION

The Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance and Virginia Department of Health are hosting a series of conversations with Sexual and Domestic Violence Agency staff and allied partners to discuss economic injustice and how it impacts survivors and our communities.

We will spend time digging into the specific needs of survivors in your community and possible policy solutions to address these needs.

Come share your thoughts and insights around the ways in which economic insecurity intersects with issues related to sexual and domestic violence!
